Good news in economically trying times: 1200 jobs available at La Ronde!

Montréal, Friday February 27, 2009 – Three months before the beginning of a season that will be marked by the arrival of The Mummy: Tomb of the Dragon Emperor, Live! and by celebrations surrounding the 25th of L'International des Feux Loto-Québec presented by TELUS, La Ronde launches a major recruitment campaign aimed at filling approximately 1200 jobs.

Five hundred of the jobs being offered are directly affiliated with La Ronde, which is seeking ride operators, boutique clerks, restaurant workers and customer service attendants. Candidates with specific qualifications are also sought for customer relations, ticket sales, parking, and prevention and security positions. In general, candidates must demonstrate a passion for customer service, and must be responsible, courteous, and caring. Prior experience is not required, but candidates must be 16 years of age or older as of May 29, 2009.

A number of other positions (e.g.: executive positions) are also available at this time, including that of Administrative Assistant, Internal Sales Advisor, Division Head and Ride Maintenance Supervisor, and Loss Prevention Auditor. Anyone who is interested in working in a stimulating environment is invited to visit the "Jobs" page of the La Ronde website: www.laronde.com. The deadline for applying for boutique, restaurant, and customer service jobs is March 27, 2009.

Approximately 700 other positions are available with the more than 20 franchises that operate on-site at La Ronde, including Autoclic, Concessions Québec, La Crémière, McDonald's, Mira Amusement, Queues de castor, Subway, and Aux Vieux-Duluth. In these cases, candidates must submit their applications directly to the franchisees.
